

INDIVIDUAL CRISIS INTERVENTION AND PEER SUPPORT & GROUP CRISIS

JANUARY 30—FEBRUARY 3, 2017

The Rocky Mountain Training Center will be hosting a Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) Assisting Individuals in Crisis and Group Intervention class (Basic CISM) training January 30– February 3, 2017 in Loveland, Colorado. The course is intended for law enforcement, fire, aviation, and other agency personnel, including line officers and agency administrators who will be trained to identify with their peers who have experienced a critical incident. The course provides training in positive coping strategies for stress, and to help others validate their thoughts and emotions surrounding a critical incident.

Program highlights: Designed to present the core elements of a comprehensive, systematic and multi-component crisis intervention curriculum, the course will prepare participants to understand a wide range of crisis intervention services. Fundamentals of Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) will be outlined and participants will leave with the knowledge and tools to provide several group crisis interventions, specifically Crisis Management Briefings, Defusings and the Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD). The need for appropriate follow-up services and referrals when necessary will also be discussed.

Instructor: Jack Harris, International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF Instructor)
Dates: Begins 0830 on Monday, January 30 and concludes 1200 on Friday, February 3, 2017
Tuition: $500 student and is the responsibility of the sending agency
Registration: Hardcopy nominations must be completed and received no later than Monday, December 14. Nominations can be emailed to nstclair@blm.gov Nomination forms can be obtained from the following link:
